In April, 1952, the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) was requested to grant him a clearance as he was to be an ensign in the United States Navy Reserve, Serial Number 39274, assigned to JCS. On 9/30/52, he received from JCS a final top secret clearance based on a background investigation completed by the Navy on 9/20/52. In September, 1954, he was to leave JCS as a military employee and was to be used as a civilian consultant to JCS. On 6/30/55, his clearance was withdrawn by JCS as he was no longer associated with JCS.

In May, 1974, OSD was requested to grant him a clearance as he was to be a consultant to OSD. On 5/28/74, he received from OSD a top secret clearance based on a background investigation completed by the Army on 3/7/68. On 9/17/74, his clearance was updated based on a background investigation completed by DIS (Defense Investigative Service) on 9/11/74. This clearance is still current.

On 7/2/75, records of the Air Force Personnel Security Group (AFDAI), Pentagon, contained the following information concerning ERNEST RICHARD MAY, born 11/19/28, Fort Worth, Texas:

He was a consultant to the Air Force from about 1968 to 10/3/70, during which time he held from AFDAI a top secret clearance which had been granted on the basis of a background investigation completed by the Army in 1968. His available records contained no adverse information.

On 7/2/75, records of the Institute for Defense Analyses (IDA), Security Branch, 400 Army Navy Drive, Arlington, Virginia, contained information that ERNEST R. MAY, born 11/19/28, Fort Worth, Texas, received from DISCO (Defense Industrial Security Clearance Office) on 5/1/68, a top secret clearance because he was a consultant to IDA. His clearance was withdrawn on 12/12/72, as he was no longer associated with JCS. This information from IDA was furnished by the security officer, [REDACTED]

EMPLOYMENT

On 7/1/75, [redacted] Office of the OSD Historian, Pentagon, advised the appointee's contract as an expert (consultant) to OSD was renewed on 7/1/75, and extends to 6/30/76. From 7/1/74, to 6/30/75, he worked 130 days. When the appointee is performing his duties at the Pentagon, he occupies an office in the same suite of offices as [redacted] who advised the appointee is a "pleasant, intelligent person."

b6
b7C

On 7/1/75, Colonel JACK B. SHAW, USAF, the Deputy for Special Projects, OSD Historian Office, advised he has known the appointee since July, 1974, as the appointee has been an expert (consultant) to the office. Prior to January, 1975, the appointee would come to the Pentagon on the average of two or three times a week and stay in various local hotels. Since January, 1975, he has been at the Pentagon three to five days a week and since then has taken an apartment (509 North Roosevelt Boulevard, Apartment D-201, Falls Church, Virginia), where he resides alone. The appointee along with two other individuals [redacted] who is employed in Washington, D. C., and [redacted] were hired to write a summary volume which is part of a Strategic Arms Competition Study being conducted by OSD. He has a "good professional reputation, is very personable, is a good teacher, and is moderate in his habits."

b6
b7C

On 7/2/75, [redacted] an associate professor of Public Policy at Harvard was interviewed in the OSD Historian Office. He advised he and the appointee have had close contact since 1969, when [redacted] joined the Harvard staff. In October, 1974, [redacted] began work as a consultant in the OSD Historian Office with the appointee and in a sense, the appointee is in a supervisory capacity over him. The appointee is "a fine person and excellent historian. He is one of the intellectual leaders in his field as well as an administrative leader at Harvard." His wife, [redacted] who is a housewife and she resides in Massachusetts with their children. For the past few months, the appointee has maintained an apartment in Virginia, where he resides alone instead of staying in hotels.

b6

AX 161-3179

On 7/2/75, [REDACTED] advised he has known the appointee for over twenty years. They first met when the appointee was a naval officer assigned to JCS. They have maintained contact throughout the years and since July, 1974, [REDACTED] has been the immediate supervisor of the appointee who is a consultant to the OSD Historian Office. He now works as a consultant about three or four days a week and has an apartment in Virginia, where he resides alone. The appointee is "a well known and highly regarded professional historian. He is a man of very high personal and professional attainments. He is one of the leading American diplomatic historians."

b6
b7C

Unless stated supra, the above individuals basically stated they knew nothing adverse concerning the appointee's character, reputation, morals, integrity or loyalty as an American. All recommended him for a position of trust and confidence in the United States Government.

NEIGHBORHOOD

On 7/2/75, [REDACTED] Falls Church Country Club Apartments, 501 North Roosevelt Boulevard, Falls Church, Virginia, advised that ERNEST R. MAY has resided alone in Apartment D-201 at 509 North Roosevelt Boulevard, since 1/19/75. [REDACTED] stated he casually knows the appointee and he is "an excellent tenant." [REDACTED] stated there are 72 apartments in the appointee's building.

b6

Fairfax County and Falls Church, Virginia, Police Department checks regarding appointee will be reported when received as well as CIA checks on him and his spouse.

NOTE: Dr. May, aged 46, a history professor at Harvard University, is being considered for a presidential appointment, position not indicated. Applicant-type investigations concerning May were conducted in 1963 and 1969. Prior and current investigations were favorable concerning May, but 1963 investigation developed information that his father-in-law, John Walton Caughey, then a history professor at the University of California at Los Angeles, reportedly espoused liberal views, his name appeared on a petition to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and on a ballot of the Hollywood Arts, Sciences and Professional Council, cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities. Investigation complete except for five agency checks.

U.S. ENERGY RESEARCH and DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

On July 3, 1975, SA [] conducted the following investigation at the U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA), Germantown, Maryland.

A review of the Service Record Card of the appointee, ERNEST RICHARD MAY, at the ERDA Personnel Office, disclosed that the appointee served as a Consultant and member of the AEC Historical Advisory Committee from November 4, 1969 to June 30, 1973 at which time the Consultantship expired and was not renewed.

b6

[] ERDA Historian and formerly the AEC Historian, advised that he has known the appointee, ERNEST RICHARD MAY, since approximately 1966 and primarily in a professional capacity. He confirmed that the appointee served on the AEC Historical Advisory Committee from 1969 to June, 1973 at which time the appointee's Consultantship expired and was not renewed. In his opinion, the appointee rendered very valuable service to his office and to the AEC Historical Advisory Committee. He has had intermittent professional contact with the appointee both at Harvard University and in Washington, D. C. area on matters related to the AEC Historical Advisory Committee. He regards the appointee as an outstanding historian and one of national prominence in the area of national security affairs. He added that the appointee has had access to highly classified AEC matters and he observed him to be very reliable and circumspect in handling these documents. His social contact with the appointee has been limited to luncheons. He regards the character, associates, reputation and loyalty of the appointee to be above question. In his opinion, the appointee is entirely trustworthy, responsible. He has no reservations regarding the appointee and highly recommended him for employment in the U.S. Government in a position of trust and confidence.

Harvard University. He began consultant type work for the Office of the Secretary of Defense in May, 1974, and continued in the capacity as a consultant until June 4, 1974, at which time he was immediately reclassified as a private contractor and continued on the rolls of the Office of the Secretary of Defense. He stated that this was a technical change and has not changed the nature of the work he has been connected with in the Office of the Secretary of Defense. He is presently involved in a historical study involving classified material concerning the Strategic Arms Competition. He stated that the appointee travels back and forth between the Pentagon and Harvard University when his presence is required at the Pentagon in his capacity as a consultant. He stated that the appointee is of excellent character, reputation, associates and a loyal American. He knows of no problems concerning the appointee or of any derogatory information. He would recommend the appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

On 12/22/77, Colonel DALE L. REYNOLDS, United States Air Force, Deputy for Special Projects, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Historian's Office, Room 2A286 Pentagon, advised that he has known the appointee since April, 1977, when the Colonel arrived at the Pentagon in his present position. He stated that he, Colonel REYNOLDS, is the Administrator of the project that the appointee is presently working on which is a history of the Strategic Arms Race. He stated that the appointee is a highly competent historian who is unique in the academic community in view of the fact that he is a recognized authority in Military Defense History. He is a very prolific writer and is highly thought of by other authorities in the field of history. To the best of his knowledge the appointee is of good character, reputation, associates, and a loyal American and he knows of no problems or derogatory information of any kind. He stated that he would recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

On 12/22/77, Sergeant [] United States Air Force, Administrative Non Commissioned Officer, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Historian, Room 2A286, advised that he has known the appointee since October, 1974, when [] became attached to this office. He stated that the appointee has worked as a consultant and recently had his job title changed from consultant to private contractor. He is a very responsible, competent, and hard working individual who has worked on a variety of studies for the Historians Office on an on and off basis since May, 1974. He stated that to his knowledge the appointee is of good character, reputation, associates and a loyal American and knows of no problems or any derogatory information. He stated that he would recommend the appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.
